

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR TO SPEAK

On Thursday, April 19, Congregation Shirat Hayam and Marshfield No Place for Hate will celebrate "Yom Hashoah", The Holocaust Remembrance. Hy Hipsman, a Holocaust survivor, will give living testimony to the atrocities of the Holocaust. This is an Interfaith Event is open to the entire community. It is a living history experience especially for children of middle school age and older. Youth groups from all the various Congregations and schools in our area are also invited.

Mr. Hipsman was from Lublin, Poland and survived the early days of the war by hiding in the woods. For quite a while he also survived by actually working for a German. In the later years of the war he went into hiding with the Russian Resistance. Hy will tell his complete story of how he survived the atrocities

The "Testimony" will be held at the Congregation (The Sanctuary Church), 185 Plain St., Marshfield at 7 PM on Thursday April 19. For more information call 781-582-2700, info@shirathayam.net, www.shirathayam.net
